

NOW READY for BUSINESS.

My stock is complete and up to date, come get your hats, we can put them up in style and price to compete with any town or city.

MRS. MOODY HARDEN.
Millinery.

CENTRAL RECORD.

FRIDAY, April 15, - 1898.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Bruce Taylor, of Nicholasville, has been here for a few days.

Miss Mary Dunn, of Danville, is visiting Miss Eugenia Bush.

Miss Mary Burns entertained her cousin at tea Friday evening.

Mr. John Anderson, of McKinney, was here a few days this week.

Messrs. George Palmer and Charles Frisbie, visited Danville Sunday.

Miss Anna Austin, of Crab Orchard, is the guest of Miss Katie Simpson.

Mrs. Gresham left yesterday for Lexington to spend the summer months.

Miss Letitia Simpson Brown, of Lexington, is visiting relatives in our city.

Miss Carrie Woods is the guest of Miss Mary Miller on Danville avenue.

Messdames Dick and Hoffman, of Crab Orchard, were in town shopping Monday.

Miss Clara Hayden, of South Elkhorn, attended the Beasley-Baughman wedding.

Miss Jennie Dunn, of Hustonville, has been visiting her cousin, Miss Sallie Tillet.

Mrs. Fisher Gaines, of Danville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Curry.

Mrs. William Bruce, of Danville, has been spending a few days with Mrs. Mattie Frisbie.

Prof. H. F. Evans has closed his subscription school in Madison, the term having expired.

Miss Patsy Beasley entertained her bridal party Monday evening, at a five o'clock dinner.

Misses Maggie and Mary Noel, of Stanford, have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Jack Hyatt.

The Cincinnati Tribune of Tuesday says H. K. Northcott, of Lancaster, was a visitor on "Change."

Miss Jennie Parks of Paint Lick, was here a few days this week, the guest of Mrs. J. S. Robinson.

Mr. D. M. Luckey has been quite sick, but we are glad to say is somewhat improved at this writing.

Mrs. Hattie R. Tankersley, of Madison, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Humphrey, Danville avenue.

Miss Sallie Lou Myers has returned from Florida, where she spent the winter with her sister, Mrs. Graham.

Mrs. Mattie Dunest and brother Cabell Denny, attended the Beasley-Baughman wedding at Stanford, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Slaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Slavin, Mrs. Nannie Jones and little daughter, of Boyle, attended the Beasley-Baughman wedding Tuesday evening.

Mr. J. Randolph Harris has accepted a position at El Dorado, Ark. He will leave next week for his new home. The Record wishes him unbounded success.

Mrs. Alex West and pretty little Miss Lillie V. spent from Friday until Sunday in Lincoln with Mrs. West's mother, who has been suffering with a sprained limb.

Mrs. James Beasley is in Cincinnati taking a course at the school of embalming. He will be there probably ten days, and will take a thorough course before returning.

Hon. J. Sam Bruce and wife Messrs. Tom, Will and Miss Jennie Baughman, Mrs. Sallie, Mr. and Mrs. Dold Pope, Eugene Pope, of Danville, attended the Beasley-Baughman wedding.

Misses Anderson gave a violet tea Saturday afternoon from two to four o'clock, in honor of Miss Patsy Beasley. A large number of guests were present and report an enjoyable time.

Capt. W. J. Kinsair has returned from Cincinnati very much improved in health. His foot is healing rapidly, and the clever Captain will soon be able to walk without the aid of his crutches.

The Record office was honored Tuesday by a call from Mr. Will J. Price, of Danville. Mr. Price is circuit clerk of Boyle, and possesses the happy trait of making his presence that of enjoyment to all, which is so characteristic of his noble father, Mr. W. C. Price.

Miss Mary Miller was the charming hostess at a progressive club party Monday evening. An elegant lunch was served. The guests of the club were Messrs. Carrie Woods, Mae Z. Hughes, Almie Marksbury, Messrs. Postel, Swinbroad, John Lear, Chas. Frisbie and John Ferra.

James Grantley Saunders, Esq., of the Harrodsburg Democrat, was in the city Sunday looking as sweet as a full-blown rose. While he claims to come to see Lancaster folks yet his real point of destination is a Lower Garvard farm, where Jim's heart has been grazing since he worked on The Record. Mr. Louis Wood, foreman of the Harrodsburg Sayings, came along to see "Skinny."

Beautiful Wedding.
The Christian church was never more prettily decorated than it was Tuesday evening, nor was there ever a larger crowd assembled therein. The occasion was the marriage of Mr. John Smith Baughman, of Boyle county, and Miss Patsy Beasley, of Garrard. The wedding was the society event of the season, as the contracting parties are widely-known and very popular. The pulpit was a solid bank of palms and evergreens, no blooming flowers being used. In a cozy nook sat the organist, Miss May Z. Hughes, and a quartette composed of Mrs. Juliet Rogers, Miss Adie Burns, Messrs. Frank West and J. C. Hemphill. The ushers were Messrs. Gus Hayden, Nicholasville, Robert Salter, W. J. Price, W. S. Lawwill, Hickman Carter and J. B. Nichols, of Danville. The party entered the church from the front door. The ushers came in first, followed by the bride's maids, Misses Letitia Brown, Lexington, Sallie Steel, Nicholasville, Alice Hudson, Mattie Elkin, Lancaster. The bride came down the left aisle, leaning upon the arm of her uncle, Mr. Luther Gibbs. They were preceded by two little flower girls, Misses Margaret Kinsair and Elma Mason. The groom came in by the right aisle, accompanied by his brother, Homer. The party formed a pretty semi-circle at the altar where Rev. T. H. Campbell, in a few well-chosen remarks pronounced them man and wife. The entire party left the church by the left aisle. As they entered, the wedding chorus from "Lohengrin" was sung by the quartette. As they left, Miss Hughes played the Mendelssohn march. The bride wore white organdy over white satin, with a full skirt and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bride's maids wore white organdy, with green sashes and carried Easter lilies. The two maids of honor, Misses Alice Anderson and Jennie Burns, wore white organdy with white sashes and also carried Easter lilies. The little flower girls were attired in pure white and carried handkerchiefs of cut flowers. The groom, best man and ushers wore the conventional full dress suits. The ceremony over, the party took carriages and were driven to the home of the groom, in Boyle, where a handsome reception was given.

The bride was one of Garrard's most popular society girls and by her charming manners and lovely disposition, made friends of all with whom she met. Old and young alike admire her and no bride has ever started upon the matrimonial voyage with more well-wishes than does she. Mr. Baughman, while a citizen of Boyle, has a very large number of relatives and friends in Garrard who heartily congratulate him on winning one so pure and lovely for a helpmeet through life. He is an industrious, thrifty young gentleman and will never give his fair bride the slightest cause to regret the step she taken. Mr. and Mrs. Baughman will reside in Boyle county, where he will continue to look after his farming interests.

Who is He?
The Louisville Times says Robert Hazen, of Garrard county, near Lancaster, who came to Louisville to enlist in the army, was "touched" for his watch, pocket-book containing $3.80 and overcoat. He told Chief of Detectives Sullivan that he thought he would be better at home than in the army after his adventure, and refused to stay to see whether the property could be recovered.

Rheumatism Cured.
My wife has used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with great relief, and I can recommend it as a splendid liniment for rheumatism and other household uses for which we have found it valuable. -W. J. CUTLER, RED CREEK, N. Y.

Mr. Cuyler is one of the leading merchants of this village and one of the most prominent men in this vicinity. -W. G. PHIPPS, Editor Red Creek Herald. For sale by R. E. McRoberts, Lancaster Ky.

The local "Cuban Junta" has taken in several new members recently and if the organization continues to grow they will soon have to hold their nightly meetings in the circuit courtroom. There is talk among the boys of inviting Col. Hill, the able and distinguished Stanford lawyer, to deliver an address to the Junta. This would be a rare treat and we hope the enthusiastic Cuban sympathizers will invite him.

I have just received a new and complete line of Spring and Summer millinery and would be pleased to have my friends and customers call and examine them. -Mrs. A. S. HARELDER, Bryansville, Ky. April 1, 1m

Call at my store and we will explain how to Get One of these Roasters Free!

I now have on hand

the Best Garden Seeds in Bulk.

LANGDON'S BREAD DAILY.

NICEST CANDIES IN

THE CITY.

A. & B. Boquet and Proctor Knott

Cigars. Best in the market.

We handle only the Best Goods and strive to please.

H. M. BALLOU.

Tone Up With

Swift's Specific

Planters

HUMAN TEA

Regulates the Liver. Price, 25 cts.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

We print Jack bills.
Northern seed Irish potatoes at $1 per bushel at Gaines'.

Produce taken in exchange for goods at The Logan Dry Goods Co.

I would like to do your plain sewing and dyeing. Mrs. Ophelia Dann.

Wanted!
Salesman to sell Lubricating Oils from samples on commission. Liberal terms. The Euclid Oil Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

The second week in May will be a banner week in Louisville. The Music Festival, the Commercial Convention, and the Races will attract large crowds on May 6, 10 and 11. One fare rates have been arranged on all the railroads.

Thirty-five years make a generation. That is how long Adolph Fisher, of Zanesville, O., suffered from piles. He was cured by using three boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Storms' Drug Store.

Court Day Dinner.
The ladies of the Methodist Church will serve a dinner Court Day in the room formerly used as the post office. Everything good to eat will be served and only the small sum of 25 cents will be charged. Patronize a good cause and get a first-class meal.

A little boy asked for bottle of "get up in the morning as fast as you can." the druggist recognized a household name for "DeWitt's Little Early Risers" and gave him a bottle of those famous little pills for constipation, headache, liver and stomach troubles. Storms' Drug Store.

Fair at Danville.
Will Danville have a fair this fall? A great many persons are asking this question, and there appears to be some prospect of an exhibition. If crops turn out well and sell high, with general good times and money more plentiful, there may be a fair, with trotting features added. There will be no fair at Harrodsburg or Richmond. -Advocate.

M. L. Yocum, Cameron, Pa., says "I was a sufferer for ten years, trying all kinds of pills, remedies, but without success. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve was recommended to me. I used one box. It has effected a permanent cure. As a permanent cure for piles DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has no equal. Storms' Drug Store."

To the Klondike, Alaska, North and Northwest, first-class service via the Queen & Crescent Route, with three Pullman Sleepers to Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis. Vestibule trains from New Orleans, Birmingham, Meridian, Jacksonville, Atlanta and Chattanooga. Ask your railroad agent for particulars, or write to O. L. Mitchell, D. P. A., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Special Rates.
Special rates to Norfolk, Va., for the Southern Baptist convention. On account of the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention at Norfolk, Va., on May 6th to 15th inc. the Chesapeake and Ohio Ry will sell round trip tickets to Norfolk from all stations at one fare rate, good going may 2nd to 6th inc, and good to return in fifteen days. The return limit is subject to an extension of fifteen days additional by depositing ticket with C. & O. Agent at Norfolk. Remember that the C. & O. is several hours quicker route from all Central Kentucky points. Two limited trains daily each way-scenery unsurpassed. In order that arrangements can be made for sleeper service send in your mail to the undersigned, stating what train and date you will go. Write for any information wanted. No trouble to answer questions. G. W. Barney, D. P. A., Lexington, Ky.

Southern Baptist Convention Norfolk, Va., May 5-15 1898. Tickets on sale via the Queen & Crescent Route at the rate of one fare for round trip from all points on its line to Norfolk, Va., on account of the Southern Baptist Convention which meets at that point May 5-15, 1898. Dates of sales, May 2nd to 6th, good to return 15 days after date of sale. The most attractive route to Norfolk is via the Queen & Crescent Route.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children. -W. A. STROUD, Popponoke City, Md. For sale by R. E. McRoberts, Lancaster, Ky.

Worse than Small Pox.
The fact that the committee succeeded in getting a good train service is going mightily hard with some of the loafing, croaking, drawbacks who laid around stores and public places and said nothing would be accomplished. These peaky nuisances and space-occupiers now entertain their fellow loafers by predicting that the service will not be kept on long. There is one thing for those who want the town to prosper to do, and that is to freeze out this class of cattle. All communities are infected more or less by objectors and goods-box orators, but it seems that Lancaster's pests are the most persistent on earth. They gas about matters they know absolutely nothing about, are thoroughly conversant upon the private affairs of everybody in town, and would not hesitate to tell the Great Power how to run the earth. Some of these so-called statesmen should be put to schooling.

GETTING READY

Every expectant mother has a trying ordeal to face. If she does not get ready for it, there is no telling what may happen. Child-birth is full of uncertainties if Nature is not given proper assistance.

Mother's Friend

is the best help you can use at this time. It is a liniment, and when regularly applied several months before baby comes, it makes the advent easy and nearly painless. It relieves and prevents "morning sickness," relaxes the overstrained muscles, relieves the distended feeling, shortens labor, makes recovery rapid and certain without any dangerous after-effects. Mother's Friend is good for only one purpose, viz.: to relieve motherhood of danger and pain.

One dollar per bottle at all drug stores, or sent by express on receipt of price.

Full books, containing valuable information for women, will be sent to any address upon application to

THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO.,
Atlanta, Ga.

Music lovers will have an opportunity of hearing some of the greatest artists of Europe and America at the Louisville May Festival on May 9, 10 and 11. No expense has been spared to make the five concerns of the Festival as attractive as possible.

Big Fire.
About 12:30 o'clock yesterday morning, the large store room on Richmond street, occupied by S. T. Evans was discovered to be on fire. The alarm bell was rung and a big crowd was soon on hand, but the heat and smoke made it impossible to save anything. Mr. Evans left the building about 11 o'clock, and says everything was right and he is unable to say how the fire originated. He carried a general assortment, consisting of groceries, dry goods, clothing, harness, and, in fact had almost anything one could call for. He valued his stock at $3,500, but only carried $1,300 insurance. Mr. Evans is an energetic young fellow, and had built up a good trade. Our people sympathize with him in his loss. He's not the kind that will give up, but will take a fresh hold and come again.

HIDEOUS REPTILE

Given Birth to by a Lincoln County Woman.

STANFORD, April 14.—Dr. W. R. O'Bannon has just told me of the horrible experience of a young married woman of this county, the details of which are as follows: Sometime ago a number of neighbors gathered at a farm house in the Southern end of this county to spend the winter evening in social converse. One of the guests told a snake story, another gentleman followed suit, finally a rivalry was gotten up as to who could tell the most thrilling actual experience. An old gray haired man squared himself in an arm chair and related his experience in his younger days with an immense reptile, which was so dangerous that his hearers could almost see the glaring eyes and protruding tongue as the serpent was wrapped around the old man's body, while he grappled with it in the unexpected combat, finally killing it with his bowie knife. The young married woman mentioned above listened with rapt attention during the narration and before its conclusion was trembling like an aspen leaf, finally fainting and falling prostrate on the floor. Four months and a half later Dr. W. R. O'Bannon was sent for to attend her, when she gave birth to the most hideous looking reptile ever gazed upon. It was five and a half feet long and flesh-colored. On account of the high standing of the family and their great distress at the horrible occurrence, it has been kept a profound secret, only the family and the physician knowing a word about it. SNEYAW.

ALL WOMEN

Should know that the "Old Time" Remedy,

PLANTERS' REMEDY

Is the best for Female Troubles. Corrects all irregularities in Female Organs. Should be taken for Change of Life and before Child-Birth. "Old Time" Remedies have stood the test for twenty years.

Made only by New Spencer Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tennessee.

For sale by R. E. McRoberts, Lancaster

Women's and Misses' Garments.
Go to Mrs. M. D. Hughes and see the latest styles, and Wanamaker and Brown's samples, for Women's tailor-made suits, waists, skirts, also Misses' Jackets and suits, at Philadelphia prices. Perfect fit guaranteed. I also have boys' suits in the latest style, at greatly reduced prices.

M. D. HUGHES, Agent

We print shipping tags.

We print typewriter heads.

STATE NEWS ITEMS.

WHOLESALE CORPORATIONS.

Indictments Vain Stand and They Must Go to Trial—Compromise Offer Rejected.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 9.—The hundred odd corporations, indicted for failure to report to the state were called in circuit court Friday. Nearly as many prominent attorneys as there are indictments are present.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of a confessed fine of $100 each. This offer has been declined. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials. The state's counsel insists on trials.

The demurrer to the indictments was argued by M. D. Shaw, of Covington; Senator C. J. Bronston, Lexington; Judge W. C. Harris, Louisville, and others for all the corporations. The latter are said to have offered to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin a wholesale compromise in the shape of